Journey Overview

Travel deep into one of the world’s most pristine and remote wilderness areas, the Kimberley of Western Australia, where spectacular gorges, rugged ranges, cascading waterfalls and endless beaches define the landscape. Be spoiled by the warm outback hospitality at El Questro Homestead and marvel at the contrasting white sand and turquoise sea from your hideaway, Cable Beach Club.

Journey Highlights

- Homestead stay on 700,000 acres of ancient Kimberley landscape
- Ride a camel along Cable Beach at sunset
- Gain insight into Broome's unique maritime and pearling heritage

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive Kununurra

Arrive into Kununurra, gateway to the East Kimberley, and relax before your outback adventure begins tomorrow.

The Kimberley Grande

Day 2: El Questro

Hit the road this morning for the drive west to El Questro Station, an extraordinary 700,000-acre property nestled amidst the ancient Kimberley landscape. From your unique lodgings in the homestead, perched on ochre cliffs above the Chamberlain River, soak up views of the distant ranges and bask in the solitude. Head out on foot this afternoon for a guided walk before a three-course dinner under the stars.

Day 3: El Questro

Immerse yourself in the myriad natural wonders of El Questro with an extensive choice of outdoor activities. Hike through tropical vegetation to Zebedee Springs, a series of thermal pools and small waterfalls set against a backdrop of sheer cliffs and Livistona palms. Take a 4WD safari through the property learning about the native flora and fauna, visiting the ancient boab trees and hearing stories from local characters about the area's pastoral pioneers. Or cruise at dusk through the Chamberlain Gorge keeping eyes peeled for rock wallabies and crocodiles breathing in the changing colours of the landscape.

Day 5: Broome

Today, meet your guide ahead of your sightseeing tour of Broome. See ancient rocky outcrops, rugged landscapes and pristine coastline as you explore Cable Beach, admire the oldest outdoor theatre and marvel at dazzling Anastasia's Pool, a man-made wonder, as well as some of Broome's most iconic landmarks. As you travel, hear fascinating stories of Broome's colourful past that have shaped the multi-cultural community it is today, including a High Tea, incorporating the historical and cultural influences of Broome and the Kimberley as you savour delicious treats and a glass of sparkling. Be captivated by 150 years of history as you discover how Broome's unique maritime and pearling heritage unfolded amongst the mangroves on the foreshore of Dampier Creek. After your tour back in time, the afternoon is yours to enjoy at leisure.

Later this evening, perhaps you'll be lucky enough to witness the 'Staircase to the Moon', an incredible natural lightshow visible on just a few days each month when the full moon rises over the exposed tidal flats.

Cable Beach Club Resort | B

Day 6: Broome

A day to relax on the beach or in the resort. Or, take a scenic flight over the extraordinary Bungle Bungle Ranges or Horizontal Waterfalls.

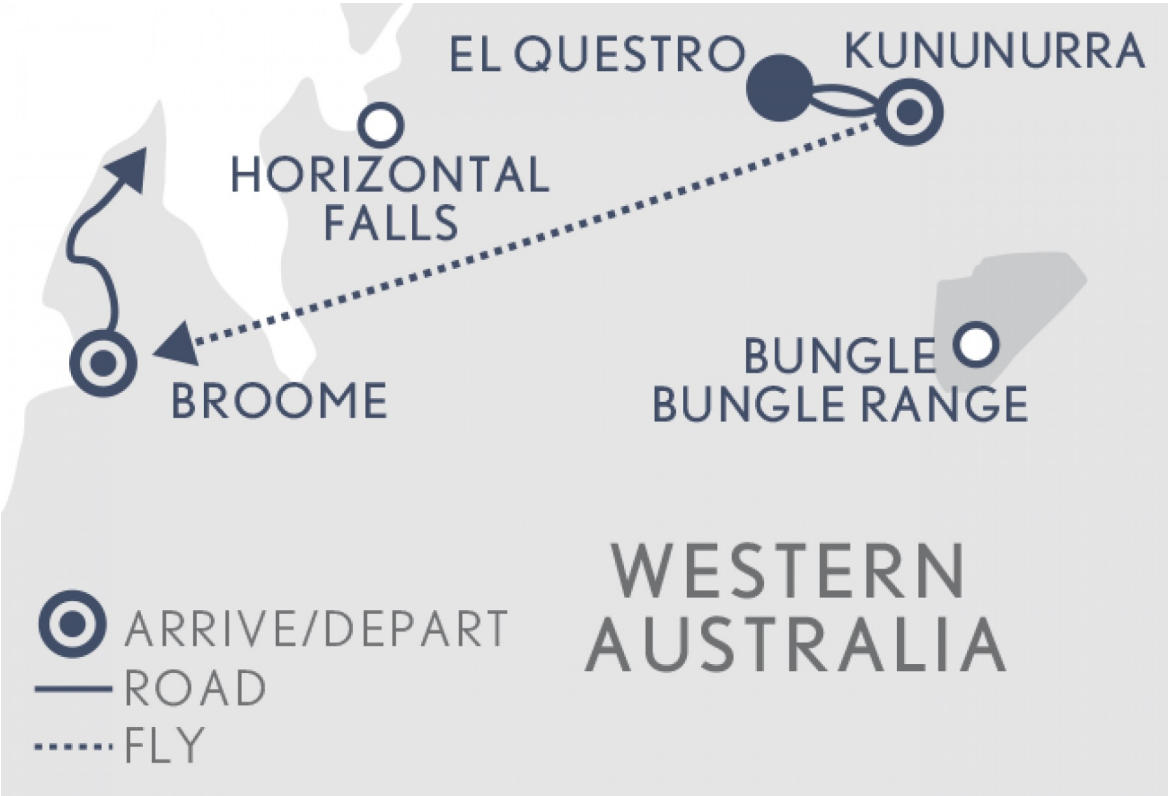

Cable Beach Club Resort | B

Day 7: Depart Broome

Your journey ends as you depart Broome.

The Homestead at El Questro, Kimberley

El Questro Homestead is an outstanding blend of remote regional hospitality and the exploration of the superb outback wilderness landscape of the Kimberley. El Questro Wilderness Park is one million acres in size and really is one of the last true frontiers with rugged sandstone ranges, gorges, waterfalls and an abundant of wildlife. At the heart of the property lies El Questro Homestead, a boutique oasis, perched atop a cliff with birdseye views of The Chamberlain River - a relaxed retreat catering for a maximum of 20 guests.

The extensive experiences menu is key to the Homestead offering and there are diverse options for guided drives, bush, culture and nature tours, bird-watching, gorge hikes, swimming at pristine waterfalls and rock pools, scenic flights, remote picnics and fishing excursions. After exploring this dramatic land of extremes, guests may soak in the thermal Zebedee Springs, curl up under an ancient Boab tree with a book, or simply join the local wallaby population and lounge in the shade.

El Questro tours and activities form an integral part of every visit to the property. The Homestead offers a wide range of complimentary excursions that provide opportunities to fully immerse yourself in the natural attractions of the Wilderness Park. The majority are exclusive to Homestead guests, facilitating engagement between the small group and their guide. El Questro's enthusiastic rangers are adept at personalising your experience to your individual tastes.

Allow El Questro Homestead to tailor you a customised itinerary to ensure you sample the best of El Questro and the Kimberley while still leaving time to take in the serenity of the Homestead. Guests are encouraged to pre-book their full itinerary or individual excursions prior to arrival. Please view this fact sheet.
