Day 2: Kathmandu

Rise early for your first real glimpse of Nepal's mountain magnificence on a fixed wing mountain flight (additional charge). Soar over a majestic landscape of snow-capped peaks, deep valleys and glaciers, dominated by the world's highest mountain, Everest.

After breakfast, climb the steps to Swayambhunath, also known as Monkey Temple due to the holy monkeys that reside nearby. Explore the fifth-century temple with its beautiful Buddhist stupa and drink in sweeping views of the city and valley below. Later, head to the temple of Pashupatinath, and marvel at its astonishing architectural beauty on the bank of the sacred Bagmati River. Continue to the imposing 14th century Bouddhanath Stupa, one of the holiest of Tibetan Buddhist sites. Meet a local artisan for a fascinating insight into Buddhism and the Thangka paintings. Find your spot overlooking the stupa and enjoy sundowners to the gentle sound of chanting as you watch pilgrims circling the site and spinning prayer wheels.
