Journey Overview

Explore kaleidoscopic India, seeing contrasting Old and New Delhi, holy Varanasi and — if luck has it — the elusive Bengal tiger in Panna National Park. Behold the peerless Taj Mahal at sunrise and sunset, attend the colourful Pushkar Fair, and privately cruise placid Lake Pichola in Udaipur.

Journey Highlights

- Enjoy two days at the Pushkar Fair to experience its vibrant spectacle
- Stay in former palaces, including iconic royal residences such as the lavish Taj Lake Palace in Udaipur and the grand Rambagh Palace in Jaipur
- Embark on a private sunset boat cruise on Lake Pichola, your palace hotel seemingly floating on the water beneath an orange-hued sky, and cap it off with a refreshing cocktail
- Behold the glorious Taj Mahal at sunrise and sunset
- Set out on private safaris in Panna National Park, home to the elusive Bengal tiger, and enjoy an exclusive talk on conservation by a member of the local Pardhi community
- Observe priests performing an aarti ceremony on the banks of the Holy Ganges in Varanasi
- Experience the diverse appeal of India's great cities, from Delhi, a centre for politics and, with its enduring British influence, a blend of old and new, to colourful, fast-paced Mumbai, the innovative commercial heart of the country

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive Delhi, India

Arrive in Delhi, India's vibrant capital city, where you are met by an Abercrombie & Kent representative and transferred to your hotel.

The Oberoi, New Delhi

Day 2: Delhi | Exploring the Old & the New

This morning, Ride Like a Local and set off on an exciting rickshaw ride through the carts and stalls of Chandni Chowk bazaar, one the oldest and busiest markets in Old Delhi. After lunch, tour New Delhi, including Humayun's Tomb, the last resting place of an esteemed 16th-century Mughal emperor and an architectural precursor of the Taj Mahal. Tonight, enjoy a welcome dinner alongside fellow guests.

The Oberoi, New Delhi | Meals: BLD

Days 3: Varanasi | India's Holiest City

Fly to Varanasi this morning, a city sacred to Hindus and Buddhists alike. Enjoy a city tour and check in to your hotel. At dusk, head to the banks of the sacred Ganges River to witness the aarti ceremony. Chanted prayers and rhythmic drumming fill the air as you watch lantern-bearing priests bid the gods and goddesses a restful slumber.

Taj Ganges, Varanasi | Meals: BD

Days 4: Varanasi/Khajuraho | Private Sunrise River Cruise

Rise early for a private sunrise cruise on the Ganges River to observe activity along the ghats (stone steps leading down to the river), where locals and pilgrims cleanse themselves, literally and spiritually. Spend the rest of the morning relaxing at your hotel. Then, fly to Khajuraho and explore the magnificent Hindu and Jain temples of Khajuraho, adorned with intricate stone carvings depicting all aspects of life. Continue to remote Panna National Park, a haven for India's wildlife. On an A&K-exclusive experience, meet with a member of the nomadic Pardhi community to learn about their role in the continuing effort to repopulate Panna National Park with the elusive Bengal tiger.

The Lalit Temple View Khajuraho | Meals: BD

Day 5: Panna National Park | Tracking the Bengal Tiger

Rise early this morning for a game drive in Panna National Park by four-wheel-drive vehicle, spotting crocodile or perhaps the elusive Bengal tiger. Learn how a successful conservation program has grown the park's tiger population, increasing the odds of a sighting. Return to the hotel to savour a Chef's Table experience featuring an Indian cooking demonstration, as your hotel's chef prepares local delicacies for lunch. Enjoy an afternoon game drive before returning to your hotel for dinner.

Day 6: Agra | Visions of the Taj Mahal

Today, travel through the countryside to Jhansi, where you board your express train to Agra. Check-in to your luxury hotel and catch your first glimpse of the Taj Mahal through your window.

The Oberoi Amarvilas, Agra | Meals: BL

Day 7: Agra | Monuments of Emperors

Few sights in the world are as breathtaking as the Taj Mahal. This elaborate mausoleum, created by the emperor Shah Jahan in memory of the most beloved of his wives, is the apex of Mughal architecture, its gem-encrusted marble skin giving it a shimmering, intangible quality. Pay a visit to the masterpiece this morning, when the rising sun lends a warm pink tint to its marble face. Proceed to Agra Fort, a 16th-century Mughal monument and UNESCO World Heritage Site where Sha Jahan was once held prisoner. Following afternoon leisure time, see the incomparable Taj Mahal at sunset, when it is awash in shifting hues.

The Oberoi Amarvilas, Agra | Meals: BD

Day 8: Jaipur | The Pink City

After breakfast, drive to Jaipur and check in to your hotel, the former residence of the Maharajah of Jaipur. Later, explore the City Palace, a unique and arresting complex of several palaces, pavilions, gardens and temples. Located within the palace's gates is the Mubarak Mahal, or "Auspicious Palace," which contains textiles including the royal formal costumes, Sanganeri block prints, Kashmiri pashminas and silk saris. Then, visit Jantar Mantar, an intriguing open-air array of astronomical instruments.

Rambagh Palace, Jaipur | Meals: BLD

Day 9: Jaipur | Design your Day

See the Palace of the Winds — built for the women of the royal household to observe street life without being seen. Proceed to explore the beautiful Mughal-style Amber Fort. This red sandstone and marble palace is a UNESCO World Heritage Site. This afternoon, enjoy one of these Design Your Day activities.

- Practice Yoga During a Private Session at Rambagh Palace.
- Visit Digantar Vidyalay to interact with the students at an innovative school supported by Abercrombie & Kent Philanthropy.
- Discover the Bazaars of Jaipur, taking in the vibe of local life and browsing for mementos.

Rambagh Palace, Jaipur | Meals: BL

Day 10: Pushkar | Experiencing the Colourful Fair

Early this morning, drive to the otherwise quiet, secluded desert town of Pushkar, sharing the road with camel, trucks, cattle, water buffalo and rickshaws as you approach. Spend the next two days experiencing the bustling Pushkar Fair, a colourful whirl of activity drawing people from all around the globe.

Umaid Mahal Palace, Pushkar | Meals: BLD

Day 11: Pushkar | A Bevy of Activity

Enjoy another opportunity to experience the Pushkar Fair. See painted and adorned camel and cattle being traded; peruse stalls selling camel tassels and woven gypsy dowry bags; and witness Hindu devotees as they throng the ghats around Pushkar Lake in order to bathe, cleanse their sins and attain a place in heaven.

Umaid Mahal Palace, Pushkar | Meals: BLD

Day 12: Udaipur | Temples & Palaces

Drive to Udaipur, stopping for lunch en route. Continue to Udaipur and check in to your romantic hotel.

Taj Lake Palace, Udaipur | Meals: BL

Day 13: Udaipur | Cruise to Jag Mandir

This morning, explore the City Palace, a marble complex that offers unforgettable views of Lake Pichola and its surroundings. Continue to the Crystal Gallery in Fateh Prakash Palace. Stroll through the Sahelion Ki Bari (Garden of the Maids of Honour) before returning to the hotel. Later, take a private cruise past Jag Mandir, a palace on an island in placidly beautiful Lake Pichola, followed by a Scenic Sundowner. Enjoy dinner at your hotel.

Taj Lake Palace, Udaipur | Meals: BD

Day 14: Mumbai | Bustling Environs

Fly in the morning to the cosmopolitan city of Mumbai, India's bustling, vibrant commercial capital. After checking in to your hotel, you may see the city at leisure or simply relax. In the evening, join fellow guests for a farewell dinner.

The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai | Meals: BD

Day 15: Mumbai | The Gateway of India

This morning, explore the city's classic sites, beginning with the Gateway of India, an 25-metre-high arch with a design that reflects India's Muslim and Hindu traditions. Visit the Prince of Wales Museum and Mani Bhawan, a museum dedicated to the life and works of Mahatma Gandhi. Next, see the Dhobi Ghat, the largest open-air laundry in the world and a wonderfully colourful spectacle to behold. Return to your hotel in the early afternoon, with the balance of the day and evening at leisure.

Accommodation

The Oberoi, New Delhi

From its fabulous location in the heart of New Delhi's cosmopolitan metropolis, the Oberoi New Delhi offers a central base for exploring this cultural city.

With luxury and comfort front of mind, this hotel was designed as a contemporary interpretation of Sir Edwin Lutyens' architecture found around the district. This is reflected in the 220 rooms and suites, which are carefully furnished with handpicked items and artwork in line with Lutyens' approach. These somewhat pale into insignificance though when you catch a glimpse of the views through large picture windows of the Delhi golf course and Humanyun's Tomb, a UNESCO World Heritage site.

Service here is second to none with butlers available 24 hours every day and four bars and three restaurants. Choose to indulge in the views with a sundowner in the brand new open air rooftop bar Cirrus9, along with the savvy residents of the city. If you would like to be a little more low key, head to either the wine cellar Enoteca, the Club Bar or the Cigar Lounge.

The restaurants cater to international and local tastes with Omya serving authentic Indian cuisine, under the mentorship of internationally renowned chef Alfred Prasad and Baoshuan offering Chinese delicacies on the rooftop terrace. Enjoy a meal at the recently redesigned 360 degree for either breakfast, lunch or dinner.

When you have taken in the sights, sounds and smells of Delhi, retreat to the Oberoi Spa for some R'n'R at the wellness centre – either in the heated indoor and outdoor pool or in the fitness centre.

- Centrally located in the heart of the city
- Contemporary design with traditional New Delhi accents
- Temperature-controlled wine cellar with a superb selection of fine wines and champagnes
- · Outstanding culinary offering in three different restaurants
- Stunning views over the Delhi golf course and the UNESCO World Heritage site of Humayun's Tomb

Pashan Garh, Panna National Park

Tucked into a rocky outcrop with views of the Vindhya Hills and 200 acres of private jungle, the opulent Pashan Garh lodge, a Taj Safari lodge, offers 12 luxury stone cottages as well as an intimate guest area. Built with drypacked stone in the local Panna style, each suite has a private verandah and gazebo.

The guest area features a cosy sitting room with a shaded deck area overlooking the wilderness, a Safari Shop with a library. The exotic lodge is a mere seven miles (40 km) from the Panna National Park entrance and a 60-minute chauffeured drive from Khajuraho. Our expert chefs prepare divine Indian cuisine, served to you at the location of your choice.

Unique palanquin dining displays a bush dinner on an ox cart, while our 'haandi' dinner is served in traditional earthenware pots. Try an al fresco lunch by the pool, or opt for in-room service, discreetly delivered using butler hatches. Our experienced naturalists trained by &Beyond ensure you have an intimate and meaningful interaction with nature.

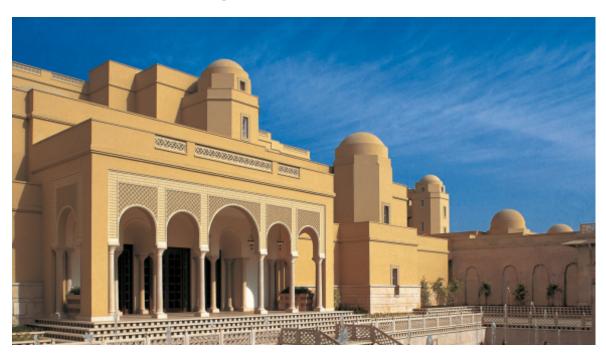

Exciting safaris, held twice a day, let you explore the thick teak forests and rocky terrain from the comfort of a specially designed Tata open 4x4 safari vehicle. Learn about the rich flora and fauna while keeping your eyes open sightings of tigers, crocodiles and Panna's 10 Star Birds! Situated in the Vindhya Hills along the pristine Ken River, Panna National Park is an important protected wildlife area and a base to explore Khajuraho—a famous World Heritage Site.

A vast plateau dominated by tropical forests, deep ravines, cascading waterfalls and thick teak forests, the famous national park links the eastern and western populations of resident wildlife. Take a leisurely stroll through the village of Khajuraho, and discover the charm of its tiny trinket shops and famous temples. Panna town, renowned for its diamond mines and historic temples is also well worth exploring. Come, discover the wild while nestled in luxury.

- Stone cottages within the forest
- Just 50km from the temples of Khajuraho
- Surrounded by 200 acres of pristine forest

The Oberoi Amarvilas, Agra

The Oberoi Amarvilas is recognised as the leading luxury hotel in Agra. Built in a style inspired by Moorish and Mughal architecture, the resort is a splendid display of richly detailed interiors, terraced lawns, fountains, reflection pools and pavilions with rich interiors that take you back to an era of emperors and princes.

The rooms and suites are beautifully appointed. Most feature Burma Teak flooring, teak armoires and spacious marble bathrooms with both a bathtub and a separate shower cubicle, along with a basket of Ayurvedic toiletries. Some have the added benefit of a private balcony.

The hotel's Luxury Suites are a real treat. Located on the fifth floor, they have an entrance foyer, separate living and dining rooms and a spacious bedroom with a four-poster bed. Each suite has two private open-air terraces, both offering splendid views of the Taj Mahal.

- All rooms afford uninterrupted views of the Taj Mahal
- A deliciously eclectic choice of cuisine is served in the hotel's two restaurants
- The Oberoi Spa at Amarvilas offers an unmatched array of therapies, rituals and journeys designed to renew, refresh and replenish
- Set in the terraced garden, with an option of shade and open sky, the cobalt blue pool is straight from the pages of the Arabian nights

Rambagh Palace, Jaipur

This historic palace, having undergone an extensive refurbishment, exudes a regal elegance – from its antique chandeliers to the peacocks on the lawn. Rich textures, opulent furnishings and exquisite objets d'art abound, whilst the expansive, ornamental gardens are arranged in brilliant symmetry. The rooms were once the sanctuaries of kings, princes and their guests, and it shows. All have opulent interiors with unique themes, hand painted motif work on the walls, regal four-poster beds, walk-in wardrobes and luxurious bathrooms. The atmospheric Polo Bar serves up signature cocktails inspired by the royal sport while fine dining in Suvarna Mahal is an unforgettable experience. Signature treatments at the Jiva Spa await and there are two swimming pools to choose from.

- The Rambagh Palace is set in the heart of Jaipur
- Suvarna Mahal, with its gilded dining room setting and serving the finest Indian cuisine, is the pick of the five dining options
- Experience signature Jiva Spa therapies and ancient regal Indian treatments at the fairytale style spa for an impossibly lavish experience
- The hotel has both indoor and outdoor swimming pools

Taj Lake Palace, Udaipur

Wonderful in every detail, the Taj Lake Palace was built between 1743 and 1746, and was originally a lake island palace named Jag Niwas after his highness Maharana Jagat Singh II, 62nd successor to the royal dynasty of Mewar. Not surprisingly, it is a truly regal building, its gleaming, white marble façade rising from the surface of the lake topped by domes, arches and gilded detailing.

Inside, the public areas combine breathtaking views with eye-catching interiors. Intricately carved, pure white walls and ceilings stand above tiled floors - all punctuated by fountain courtyards, roof terraces and secluded corners.

The rooms too are utterly palatial. With frescoes and superb original features in abundance, they showcase the finest modern craftsmanship, yet never leave their heritage behind. In truth, they have to be seen to be believed - suffice to say that, with their beautiful décor, furniture and furnishings, they are fit for royalty.

Given its tranquil location and luxurious, personalised services, Taj Lake Palace is the ideal place to end a tour of Rajasthan – or an ideal base from which to explore the region.

- All rooms and suites enjoy stunning views
- This hotel appears to float on the tranquil waters of Udaipur's Lake Pichola
- Fantastic location complements sublime cuisine in the four restaurants, which serve Asian, Indian, contemporary Western and Italian dishes
- Rooftop pool surrounded by sun loungers

• Jiva Spa offers signature treatments, Indian therapies, Indian aromatherapy, scrubs, wraps and beauty service

The Taj Mahal Palace, Mumbai

The history of Mumbai and The Taj Mahal Palace are dramatically intertwined. The hotel is Mumbai's first harbour landmark (built 21 years before the Gateway of India) and the site of the first licensed bar in the city. For more than a century, the Taj has played an intrinsic part in the life of the city, hosting Maharajas, dignitaries and eminent personalities from across the globe. Today it is a Leading Hotel of the World and favourite destination for discerning travellers.

Whether you choose a room in the Palace or Tower, your accommodation is certain to be a remarkable blend of old-world elegance and modern facilities. Mixing traditional touches with stylish, contemporary design, all are decidedly upscale, in the style of a spacious luxury apartment. What's more, all afford superb views.

The Taj Mahal Palace is also home to 44 generously appointed suites, each adorned with original paintings and period furniture to evoke the grandeur of another age. Combining contemporary and classic styles, the richly hued interiors exemplify luxurious living, a sense re-enforced by perfect service personal butlers can be summoned at the touch of a button - attending to every request from check-in to departure.

- Choice between old-world Heritage Wing rooms and those in the contemporary Tower Wing
- Excellent location with front-row seats to the Gateway of India
- Range of award-winning restaurants with cuisines ranging from contemporary Indian to fine-dining
- Jiva Spa offers traditional Indian treatments, from the relaxing Vishram to Pehlwan
