Journey Overview

Escape from it all to the beautiful Riviera Maya on Mexico's north eastern Yucatán Peninsula. Featuring more than 161km of Caribbean coastline, the beaches here are only the start of the allure of this wonderful region. The sheer variety of attractions and leisure pursuits is what makes a holiday here so special. There are superb ancient Mayan ruins to explore, great shopping and nightlife to experience and some of the world's great dive locations.

Journey Highlights

- Swim to a reef sanctuary in search of sea turtles
- Explore Tulum, one of the most spectacular Mayan archaeological sites
- Dine on the freshest fish and seafood at the best local restaurants

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive Cancun - Riviera Maya.

On arrival in Cancun Airport, meet your local representative and proceed to the white sands of Xpu-Ha beach on the Riviera Maya and your beautiful, secluded boutique luxury hideaway overlooking the turquoise Caribbean. Drop your bags and stroll down to the beach to soak in the superb location.

Hotel Esencia (Jungle Suite with Plunge Pool)

Day 2: Riviera Maya.

Enjoy a private half day excursion with an expert guide to Tulum, an ancient Mayan port that was still in use at the time of the Spanish conquest. The ruins are considered among the most beautiful in Mexico due in part to their dramatic location on a 15m high cliff overlooking the turquoise Caribbean.

Day 3: Riviera Maya.

A day at leisure in this idyllic location. There is plenty to do here. Swim to a reef sanctuary just off the beach in search of sea turtles, fish, dive, horse ride or play a round of golf. For a culture fix, journey to Chichen Itza and Ek Balam archaeological sites. Nature lovers might like to Sian Kaan Biosphere Reserve. The choice is yours.
