- Discover diverse wildlife in places synonymous with unforgettable game sightings, including Tarangire National Park, Ngorongoro Crater and Serengeti National Park
- Stay at luxurious, authentic tented safari camps in prime locations
- Explore Ngorongoro Crater, an extraordinary natural wonder teeming with wildlife
- End each day on safari soaking up unforgettable African sunsets

Itinerary

Day 1: Arrive Arusha

A warm A&K welcome to northern Tanzania at Kilimanjaro Airport and a private transfer to your hotel, located amidst 18 acres of beautifully landscaped coffee and tea plantations.

Gran Meliá Arusha

Day 2: Arusha - Tarangire National Park

This morning you are driven (approx. 2hrs) to Tarangire National Park, home to one of the country's largest elephant populations. On arrival at the park entrance gate, you will commence a full day game drive with a picnic lunch before arriving at Sanctuary Swala late in the afternoon. Your camp is situated in a remote corner of the park amongst giant acacia trees with views out beyond the savannah. The landscape is filled with ancient baobab trees, ambling elephants, and birds in flight.

Day 3: Tarangire National Park

This park is famous for its large herds of elephants which migrate through the park in search of water between July and October. Breathtaking views of the Maasai Steppe and the mountains to the south make a stop at Tarangire a memorable experience. A full day allows time for plenty of game viewing.

Day 6: Ngorongoro Crater - Serengeti National Park

This morning board your light aircraft flight into the world-famous Serengeti. Game viewing in the park varies depending on the time of year. Your classic tented safari camp is mobile and moves seasonally between two sites according to the movement of the game, ensuring you are always in the best spot to witness the Great Wildebeest Migration. During December – March stay in the Southern Serengeti which is in the ideal location for the Migration.

Sanctuary Kichakani | Meals: BLD

Days 7-8: Serengeti National Park

With an expert safari guide, explore the vast plains of the Serengeti in search of predators and other game for the next two days. The Serengeti plays host to a wonderful spectacle each year – the annual migration of millions of wildebeest and zebra who follow the rains in their continual search for grass and water – an unforgettable experience.

Sanctuary Kichakani | Meals: BLD

Day 9: Serengeti National Park - Depart Arusha

A flight returns you to Kilimanjaro Airport where your Tanzanian safari ends.

Accommodation

Sanctuary Swala, Tarangire

Sanctuary Swala is to be found in a remote valley within Tarangire National Park. The camp offers private game viewing, wilderness indulgence and a privileged glimpse of an Africa undisturbed by mass tourism. Culture is interspersed with extraordinary sights and sounds, comfort mixed with the excitement of the chase on morning and evening expeditions. The friendly and relaxed pace is the ideal backdrop to a thoroughly enjoyable safari holiday.

Large family herds of elephants and concentrations of lions and even the occasional leopard - along with wonderfully prolific birdlife - congregate around a nearby waterhole to create a sensation of majesty and purity. Being unaccustomed to vehicles, the game is unusually "wild". Accomplished hosts and safari guides enhance your stay with their own personalised African affability, professionalism and knowledge. The low volume of visitors to the park offers a truly unique and private experience.

Each tent has en suite bathrooms with showers are complemented by fixtures and fittings including dressing tables crafted from local materials, designed to mirror the understated refinement of classic safari style. Private balconies with cosy furnishings overlook the bush and the river basin. This allows you to gaze at your leisure on resident wildlife including waterbuck and impala, after which the camp is named. Intimate meals are hosted in the comfortable dining tent, with full silver service, Pan-African cuisine and fine wines adding to the rustic charm.
