Day 8: Design Your Day, Chiang Mai

Today, explore more of Chiang Mai your way, with your choice of one of these Design Your Day activities:

- Witness northern Thailand's rich tribal culture and tea traditions with a visit to a remote hill tribe. Stroll around the village, stopping at the temple and visiting the Shaman's house for an introduction to hill tribe medicines. Continue to a nearby tea plantation to try your hand at harvesting tea leaves with talented locals, and sip aromatic tea while enjoying a delicious lunch.
- Discover the vibrant and varied flora of Chiang Mai's Mae Rim district on a village visit, experiencing local life first-hand. Explore the Queen Sirikit Botanical Garden home to a kaleidoscope of wild orchids, water lilies and sweet-smelling gingers before lunch at a writer's "secret garden".
- Learn about northern Thai culinary traditions at a home kitchen surrounded by herb and spice gardens. Meet your chef instructor at a local market to learn about Thai ingredients before heading to the kitchen to prepare a selection of local Thai favourites using culinary insights and professional tips from the chef along the way. Then, sit down to enjoy your self-made lunch in the scenic garden studio.

Return to your hotel and enjoy rest of the day at your leisure.

Accommodation

Four Seasons Tented Camp Golden Triangle

Reached by river boat through a dense forest of bamboo, the Four Seasons Golden Triangle Tented Camp comes with a sense of adventure and style in an intimate tropical setting. There are just 15 luxurious tents, each designed as an open space with a large outdoor deck. Furnishings are handcrafted in styles reminiscent of 19th century expeditions, right down to the hand-beaten copper bathtubs. The resort is perfect for active adults seeking once-in-a-lifetime adventure – from bonding with the resort's friendly elephants to Golden Triangle excursions and Mekong cruises. Don't miss the stilt top bar for sundowners by the river and blissful Asian spa rituals in the open-air salas.

Sip cocktails at Burma Bar as the sun sets over the jungle, dine on regional cuisine at Nong Yao Restaurant and partake of the daily wine and cheese-tasting, private candlelit dinners or riverside picnics.

Why we like it

- Tucked away in the exotic jungle of Chiang Rai province
- Breezy luxurious tents decorated in a vintage safari style
- Intimate and attentive service for a maximum of 51 guests
- All-inclusive of transfers, meals, wines and spirits, elephant trekking and spa treatment
